Cape Fear Marinas

Introduction This guide lists marinas and yacht clubs together since in many cases the two are functionally indistinguishable. These facilities go in and out of business and change their services or locations frequently, so the information here may be incomplete or out of date. Updated November 2020.

Airlie Marina Airlie Road Wilmington, NC 28404	In the cluster of marinas, restaurants, and condos on the ICW adjacent to the drawbridge connecting Wilmington to the Harbor Island part of Wrightsville Beach, located on the inshore side farthest from the bridge. Believed to be mainly a dock facility for homeowners in the adjacent subdivision.
Anchors Bend Marina 2127 Clemmons Way Wilmington, NC 28411 (910)622-1591	On the inshore side of ICW on the unnamed creek between Howe and Pages Creeks near Mile 280. Accessed by land off Middle Sound Loop Road. Marina connected with townhouse development of the same name. Wet slips available, all with boat lifts. Transient slips. Clubhouse, showers, and restrooms. No fuel or pump out.
Anchors Away Boatyard 585 Lewis Road Hampstead, NC 28443 (910)270-4741	Northeast of Cape Fear on ICW at Daymark 90 near Mile 264. Provides reasonable haul-out, over-winter, and similar term land storage; and hurricane haul-outs without an advance subscription. DIY friendly. No fuel, dry stacks, or wet slips. No transient slips. Also, a range of services available (see listing under Repair Yards)
